JEFF LITTLEFIELD

EXECUTIVE CHEF

Armed with two decades of culinary experience, Jeff Littlefield joined the Hilton Waterfront Beach Resort as its executive chef in 2001. Drawing on his impressive training and previous luxury hotel experience, Littlefield oversees the menu and cuisine of the Hilton Waterfront Beach Resort's Shades Restaurant & Bar and governs the hotel's room service and banquet menus. With over 21,000 square feet of meeting and event space, Littlefield can oversee as many as 600 diners a night.

Prior to joining the Hilton Waterfront Beach Resort, Littlefield served as the executive chef at Shutters on the Beach in Santa Monica, where he oversaw both the One Pico and Pedals restaurants. Littlefield also worked nine years with the Four Seasons Hotels, serving as restaurant chef and banquet chef at the company's New York and Santa Barbara hotels. He also served as the banquet chef at the Dunes Hotel and Country Club in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Littlefield, a Huntington Beach Resident, is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America. His philosophy of highlighting the simple flavors of high quality ingredients rather than masking them with complex sauces and techniques, complements the refined, yet uncomplicated feel of Shades Restaurant & Bar.

Because the menus he creates rely directly on the flavor and integrity of the ingredients used, Littlefield makes regular visits to the popular Santa Monica Farmers Market and other local markets, and conducts extensive searches statewide and beyond for the finest and freshest local products and organically grown fruits and vegetables. Under Littlefield's direction, the Shades crab cakes have been selected as the "Best Taste" at the Taste of Huntington Beach events in 2008 and 2005.
